TEWAARATON AWARD ANNOUNCES SECOND ROUND OF 2018 MEN'S AND WOMEN'S WATCH LISTS ADDITIONS

WASHINGTON, April 12 – The Tewaaron Foundation has announced the second round of additions to the 2018 Tewaaron Award Men's and Women's Watch Lists. The lists include the top players across all three divisions of NCAA lacrosse and highlight the early contenders for this year's Tewaaron Award.

“We congratulate this talented group for their outstanding performances,” said Jeffrey Harvey, Chairman of The Tewaaron Award. “These players have proved they deserve to be in the conversation for lacrosse's top award and we wish them the very best the remainder of the season.”

The Tewaaron Award annually honors the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States. The selection committees are comprised of premier college coaches and are appointed annually by the Tewaaron Foundation.

On April 26, the field for the 2018 Tewaaron Award will be narrowed to 25 men's and 25 women's nominees. Nominees can be players on the watch lists or players not on the watch lists, effectively allowing for a third round of additions. This year's initial watch list, announced on March 1, recognized the top 50 men's and 50 women's candidates for the Tewaaron Award. On March 22, 18 players were named to the first round of watch list additions.

Five men's and five women's finalists will be announced on May 10 and invited to The 18th annual Tewaaron Award Ceremony in Washington, D.C., on May 31.

About The Tewaaron Foundation

Founded at the University Club of Washington, DC and first presented in 2001, the Tewaaron Award is recognized as the preeminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States. Endorsed by the Mohawk Nation Council of Elders and U.S. Lacrosse, the Tewaaron Award symbolizes lacrosse's centuries-old roots in Native American heritage. The Tewaaron Foundation ensures the integrity and advances the mission of this award. Each year, the Tewaaron Award celebrates one of the six tribal nations of the Iroquois Confederacy – the Mohawk, Cayuga, Oneida, Onondaga, Seneca and Tuscarora – and presents two scholarships to students of Native American descent.
