TEWAARATON AWARD WATCH LIST ADDITIONS ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, March 14, 2013 – The Tewaaron Foundation has announced the first of two rounds of additions to the Tewaaron Award Watch Lists, presented by Panama Jack. Three men and three women have been added to the watch lists, from which the 13th annual Tewaaron Award winners will be selected and honored May 30, 2013, at the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of the American Indian in Washington, D.C.

The players added to the Tewaaron Award watch lists, with college affiliation and early-season statistics included, are:

Men's

Jeff Froccaro, Princeton – Sr., M (14G, 3A, 16/28, 57% face-offs in five games)

Matt Kavanagh, Notre Dame – Fr., A (9G, 3A in four games)

Andrew Scalley, Mt. St. Mary's - Jr., A (24G, 23A in eight games)

Women's

Casey Bocklet, Virginia - Soph., A (21G, 8A in seven games)

Shannon Gilroy, Florida - Soph., M (27G, 2A, 28 draw controls in 10 games)

Caroline Tarzian, Georgetown - Soph., A (15G, 8A in six games)

The Tewaaron Award men's and women's watch lists, which include 2012 Tewaaron winners Peter Baum (Colgate) and Katie Schwarzmann (Maryland) were first announced Feb. 22, and a second round of additions will be announced on April 11 (if applicable). Both lists will be narrowed to a leading group of 25 Tewaaron Award nominees that will be announced at a special event on the evening of April 26 at The University Club of Washington, DC. The five men's and five women's finalists will be announced May 9. These finalists will be invited to the Tewaaron Award Ceremony on May 30 in Washington, D.C.

"The men's and women's selection committees continue to work diligently throughout the season to identify the top lacrosse players in the nation," said Jeff Harvey, chairman of the Tewaaron Foundation. "We are proud to recognize these worthy additions to this year's watch lists and look forward to the remaining college lacrosse action this season."

Following the second round of watch lists additions, The Tewaaron Foundation will announce the 25 men's and women's Tewaaron Award nominees at a special cocktail reception held in conjunction with the U.S. Women's National Team and coach Ricky Fried. The reception will take place Friday, April 26, at The University Club of Washington, DC, and is jointly hosted by The Tewaaron Foundation and the US Lacrosse Foundation. Information on attending this special event is available at www.tewaaron.com.

About The Tewaaron Foundation

First presented in 2001, the Tewaaron Award is recognized as the pre-eminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse players in the United States. Endorsed by the Mohawk Nation Council of Elders and U.S. Lacrosse, the Tewaaron Award symbolizes lacrosse's centuries-old roots in Native American heritage. The Tewaaron Foundation ensures the integrity and advances the mission of this award. Each year, the Tewaaron Award celebrates one of the six tribal nations of the Iroquois Confederacy – the Mohawk, Cayuga, Oneida, Onondaga, Seneca and Tuscarora – and presents two scholarships to students of Native American descent.
