SECOND ROUND OF TEWAARATON AWARD WATCH LIST ADDITIONS, PRESENTED BY PANAMA JACK, ANNOUNCED

WASHINGTON, APRIL 10 – The Tewaaraton Foundation has announced the second round of additions to the 2014 Tewaaraton Award Men’s and Women’s Watch Lists, presented by Panama Jack. The lists include the top players across all three divisions of NCAA lacrosse and highlight the early contenders for the Tewaaraton Award.

"Our committees led by Jack Emmer and Feffie Barnhill, have done an outstanding job. This is true recognition for these players who have stood out with their play and contributions to their respective teams," said Jeff Harvey, Chairman of The Tewaaraton Foundation.

The Tewaaraton Award annually honors the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States. The selection committees are comprised of premier collegiate coaches and are appointed annually by the Tewaaraton Foundation.

About the Tewaaraton Foundation

First presented in 2001, the Tewaaraton Award is recognized as the preeminent lacrosse award, annually honoring the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States. Endorsed by the Mohawk Nation Council of Elders and US Lacrosse, the Tewaaraton Award symbolizes lacrosse's centuries-old roots in Native American heritage. The Tewaaraton Foundation ensures the integrity and advances the mission of this award. Each year, the Tewaaraton Award celebrates one of the six tribal nations of the Iroquois Confederacy – the Mohawk, Cayuga, Oneida, Onondaga, Seneca and Tuscarora – and presents two scholarships to students of Native American descent.
