TEWAARATON AWARD, PRESENTED BY UNDER ARMOUR, ANNOUNCES MEN'S AND WOMEN'S WATCH LISTS

NEW YORK, February 26 – The Tewaaron Foundation has announced the 2015 Tewaaron Award men's and women's watch lists. The lists include the top players across all three divisions of NCAA lacrosse and highlight the early contenders for the 2015 Tewaaron Award, presented by Under Armour.

Among 2015 watch lists returnees are five former finalists. Four of the five 2014 women's finalists return to the watch list, including Megan Douty (Maryland), Shannon Gilroy (Florida), Kayla Treanor (Syracuse) and 2014 winner Taylor Cummings (Maryland). Last year's co-winner, Lyle Thompson (Albany), returns on the men's side.

“The national reach of quality players is evident in this list, with players from all regions of the country, along with a strong group of five former winners and finalists,” said Jeff Harvey, chairman of The Tewaaron Foundation. “As the season unfolds, we are excited for another deserving group of Tewaaron Award candidates to emerge and we look forward to welcoming them to Washington, DC in May.”

The Tewaaron Award annually honors the top male and female college lacrosse player in the United States. The selection committees are made up of premier collegiate coaches and are appointed annually by The Tewaaron Foundation.

Players not named to the initial list have several opportunities to play their way into a spot as the season progresses. Watch lists additions, if applicable, will be announced on March 19 and April 9. On April 23, the field will be narrowed to 25 men's and 25 women's nominees. Nominees can be players on the watch lists or players not on the watch lists, effectively allowing for a third round of additions. Five men's and five women's finalists will be announced on May 7 and invited to the ceremony. The Tewaaron Award Ceremony will be held in Washington, D.C., on May 28, 2015, at the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of the American Indian.
